

Caravan of Thieves coming to Brown Baer in Elkhart Lake

Imagine Django Reinhardt and Tom Waits thumbing a ride with a carnival barker and other misfit circus acts to deliver a traveling revue of retro-cool mayhem and pyrotechnic wizardry — abundantly talented and refreshingly entertaining. There, in a nutshell, you have Caravan of Thieves.

The quartet, led by husband and wife duo Fuzz and Carrie Sangiovanni (vocals and acoustic guitars), has carved a niche with its unique blend of gypsy folk/rock and captivating live performances which have made them a staple in clubs and festivals throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Fresh off a successful summer festival season and a U.S. tour with the Tom Tom Club, the Thieves continue the journey into fall 2010 supporting its new live release "Mischief Night," follow up to their studio debut, "Bouquet."

The band is making a stop at the Brown Baer, 181 E. Rhine St. in Elkhart Lake, on Tuesday, Nov. 16, for a 9 p.m. show.

Among the band's reviews:

"Caravan of Thieves stole my heart ... The lovely melodies and harmonious vocals ... make 'Bouquet' a sweet indulgence, indeed." — Washington Post

"This zany group brings a touch of vaudeville, over-the-top theatricality, performance art and an all-but-the-kitchen sink collection of percussion utensils (and a hubcap) to their brand of gypsy swing music ... those wild and crazy guys (and gal) turned out to be the most pleasant surprise of the day." — Huffington Post

"... combining haunting melodies and story-telling songwriting to create a unique brand of pop." — Relix Magazine "On The Verge."

Link:

<http://www.sheboyganpress.com/apps/pbcs.dll/article?AID=201011110388>